We cheer for a victory over the buckeyes led by Michigan Superfan. Smashing buckeyes always helps the cause. We honor former players and have them tell us about their times playing against the buckeyes. Videos of past games. We'll also hear from Jack Harbaugh and David Turnley. Any proceeds will be donated to Michigan Football Alumni Network.

Jack Harbaugh, Jim's father and former assistant to Bo Schembechler and head coach at Western Kentucky, will tell stories of raising two Super Bowl coaches along with insights into playing the buckeyes.

David Turnley, A Pulitzer Prize photographer will tell us about the two photo books he has published with Jim Harbaugh.

Do you want to have David and Jack sign your copy of either or both of the photo books at the BUST?, Bring them or order them on-line and bring them to the BUST. Your order must be submitted by November 5th in order to receive the books in time for the Bust

Jack Avon Harbaugh^[1] is a former American football player and coach. He is known for being the longtime head coach at Western Kentucky. He is also the father of the first pair of brothers to serve as NFL head coaches and the first pair of head coaching brothers to face off in a Super Bowl: John and Jim Harbaugh.

Harbaugh began as an assistant coach to Jack Donaldson at Perrysburg High School in Perrysburg, Ohio, southwest of Toledo. Both sons were born while Harbaugh was in Perrysburg. In 1964, Harbaugh was the head coach of Eaton High School football team in Eaton, Ohio.

From 1982 to 1986, he served as the head football coach at Western Michigan University and compiled a 26–26–3 record. From 1989 to 2002, he was the head football coach at Western Kentucky University. During his tenure with the Hilltoppers he posted a 91–68 record, including three 10-win seasons. After leaving Western Kentucky, Harbaugh served as an associate athletic director at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where his son-in-law, Tom Crean, was the head coach of the men's basketball team. Harbaugh has also served as an assistant coach at Morehead State University, Bowling Green State University, the University of Iowa, the University of Michigan, Stanford University, the University of Pittsburgh, and the University of San Diego. Harbaugh retired in 2006, but served as Stanford's running backs coach in the 2009 Sun Bowl under his son, Jim.

David and Peter Turnley were born June 22, 1955 to William Loyd Turnley and Elizabeth Ann Turnley (née Protsman) in Fort Wayne.^[2] David Turnley studied French literature at the University of Michigan, where he earned a B.A. in 1977. A fluent speaker of French and Spanish, he also has studied at the Sorbonne and Harvard University.

Turnley won the 1990 Pulitzer Prize for photography for images of the political uprisings in China and Eastern Europe, the World Press Photo Picture of the Year in 1988 for a photo taken in Leninakan after the devastating Spitak earthquake and again in 1991 for a picture of a U.S. Sergeant mourning the death of a fellow soldier during the Gulf War, as well as the Overseas Press Club Robert Capa Gold Medal. He has been a runner-up for the Pulitzer Prize in photography four times.

From 1985 to 1997, Turnley covered the struggle to end Apartheid, revolutions in Eastern Europe, the student uprising in China, the Bosnian War and the Gulf war, and the fall of the Soviet Union. In addition to publishing numerous books, he has directed an Emmy-nominated documentary for CNN on the Dalai Lama, and a feature-length documentary set in Cuban dance hall, La Tropical. He directed the documentary Shenandoah, released in 2012, about the 2008 murder and attempted cover up of an immigrant from Mexico by a group of local high school football stars from Shenandoah, Pennsylvania.^{[3][4]}

Turnley is father of two children and lives with his wife Rachel in Ann Arbor, Michigan.
